DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 7-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 7, line 1, the language, "the heat sink" lacks a proper antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Solberg et al (6,249,261) in view of Aslan (4,789,869).

Solberg et al in figures 1-7 disclose a mobile antenna comprising a center-fed, broadband, dipole radiator 202, and a coupler 206 assembly for mounting the dipole radiator to a mount 203. Solberg et al have been discussed but fail to teach the power matching circuit comprises a capacitor, the power matching circuit comprises a resistor and a capacitor connected in series/parallel and a plurality of power matching circuits. However, Aslan in figures 6-8 discloses the power matching circuit comprises a capacitor, the power matching circuit comprises a resistor and a capacitor connected in parallel (figure 6). It would have been obvious choice to employ the power matching circuit comprises a capacitor, the power matching circuit comprises a resistor and a capacitor connected in series/parallel and a plurality of power matching circuits into Solberg et al for the purpose of maintaining a balance of current distribution and improving the antenna gain.

5. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Solberg et al modified by Aslan and further-in-view of Podell et al (5,280,412).

Solberg et al modified by Aslan have been discussed above but fail to teach a heat sink assembly. However, Podell et al in figures 1-3 discloses the heat sink assembly 20/20c. It would have been obvious choice to employ the heat sink assembly as taught by Podell et al for the purpose of conducting heat.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 7-8 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The patents to Erat, Aslan, Unwin, Kaegebein and Mertel are cited as of interested and illustrated a similar structure to a dipole antenna assembly.
